

Evening Illustrated Ledger

SATURDAY
October 21, 1916

PRIMED FOR THE POLICE CARNIVAL
Officers Furey, Jones and Winnemore in their athletic togs at the Phillies' park this afternoon.

SOCIETY GATHERS AT PICTURESQUE MEDIA FOR ROSE TREE HUNT
The panorama of the Rose Tree Hunt shows the great beauty of the steeplechase course in Delaware County, where the regular autumn season is opened. Today's races ended the meet.

PENN'S BACKFIELD LINE-UP TODAY—LIGHT, DERR, WILLIAMS AND BERRY

THE "MULTIPLE KICK" IS ONE OF PENN'S NOVELTIES THIS SEASON
The quarterback (Bryant) passes the ball to the two halfbacks, who fall prone, holding the ball between their outstretched fingers for the fullback (Quigley), who gives it the boot for the goal.

THIS GROUP FURNISHES AN IDEA OF THE BRAUN INCLUDED IN THE HUSKY AGGREGATION PENNSYLVANIA STATE SENT HERE TO BUCK THE RED AND BLUE TODAY
The picture was taken at the Whitmarsh Country Club, where the State College men rested before going into action today. Seated, right to left, are O'Donnell, Thorpe, Sittry, and "Andy" Lettles, who hasn't missed a Penn State game in forty years.
Standing—Farrish, Gensmiller, Hess, Swain, Ewing, Ege, Cabbage, Czarneckie, Kraft, Smith, Krushank, Higgins, Tabner, Robb and Beck.

Photo by Evening Ledger Staff Photographers